

Air Force Song

Off we go into the wild blue yonder,

Climbing high into the sun;

Here they come zooming to meet our thunder,

At 'em boys, Give 'er the gun! (Give 'er the gun now!)

Down we dive, spouting our flame from under,

Off with one helluva roar!

We live in fame or go down in flame. Hey!

Nothing'll stop the U.S. Air Force!

Keep 'em Flying

March 22, 2018
Dover Air Force Base, Delaware

Sequence of Events

Opening Remarks

Arrival of Official Party

Presentation of Colors

National Anthem

Invocation

Remarks

DV Comments

Nose Art Unveiling

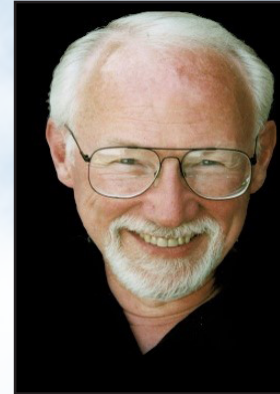

Closing Comments

Air Force Song

Return to Terminal

The Artist

Greg Hildebrandt

This rendering from the original “Keep ‘em Flying” was painted by Greg Hildebrandt. He and his identical twin brother, Tim, were born in Detroit, Michigan, in 1939. Both boys were avid artists from a young age and carried their artistic passion with them throughout their childhoods.

After attending the Meinzinger Arts School at age 18, Greg and Tim worked for the Jam Handy Organization, an industrial film production corporation. They worked on animated training films for the auto industry, the military and major U.S. corporations. In 1975, the Brothers Hildebrandt franchise was established. Greg is most known for his works that range from Star Wars and American Beauties to Marvel Comics covers and Trans-Siberian Orchestra.

This Nose Art pays tribute to past, present and future dedicated female maintainers, whose tireless efforts and confident professionalism continue to ensure mission readiness across the Air Force.